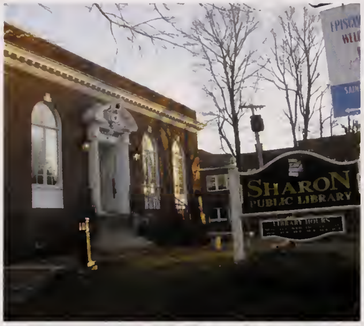
SPECIAL DELIVERY

180 Days in Sharon

The Sharon Public Library has served many great purposes and provided countless resources. It is especially fun to visit when beautiful works of art created by Art Studio 58 students are placed throughout.



SHARON
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Not only is Sharon the home to many renowned locations, but it also the home of Deborah Sampson, a fearless woman who exemplifies strength and determination. Her honorable statue reminds us of her great achievements each time we pass by it.

As the year comes and goes, we each part our separate ways and enter a new segment of the journey known as life. We discover new ideas and have new experiences, each impacting our view of the world. Even though we may disperse around the globe, there is always one place to which we return in order to find ourselves and revisit our roots: HOME.

It is a small four-letter word that has a profound impact on who we are. It brings back many great memories of gatherings with friends and family. It has a different meaning for everyone, but one aspect is certain: it is a place where we are always welcome.

As we venture out into the real world, it is wonderful to think about our home of Sharon to which we will be able to return to. The safe environment that surrounds us here provides us with a sense of security and peace of mind. No matter where we travel or where we move, Sharon will always be a community that will welcome us back.

For many, even Sharon High School itself can be considered a home. We have spent a lot of time in this place, trying to discover who we are and what we want to do. It may be a time of confusion or a time of reflection, yet either way it provides a chance for us to learn more about ourselves.

We are grateful to be part of a community that is diverse and accepting - aspects not found everywhere. It is sad that we will have to leave our family and friends as we head off to start a new portion of life, yet it is important to remember that we can always celebrate with them when we return home once again.

How cool is it to be within a few miles in distance from Crescent Ridge Dairy, whose ice cream has been ranked among the top 10 in the world by National Geographic in 2012? We have visited it so many times and can probably remember the long lines we stood in during the summer, trying to find as many people we knew as possible!

The Place We Call Home...

WELCOME TO SHARON
Est. 1765

SHARON
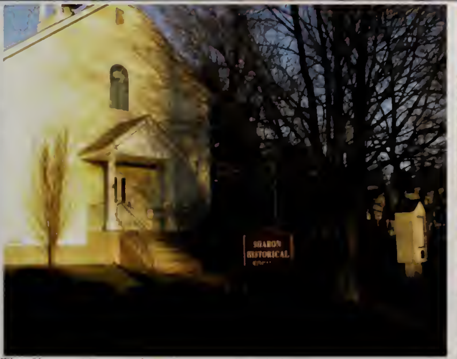
SCHOOL

Whether we travel nationally or globally, we can always find ourselves back in our home of Sharon, where we have created so many memories - especially at Sharon High School.

EAGLE PRIDE

It is a great source of pride and excitement. Win or lose, we can always find Eagles fans supporting us along the way as we work toward the path of victory. It is important to remember the community that always encourages us and not necessarily the outcome of the event.

The beautiful Lake Massapoag is a place where many of us have spent our summers. It is a great place to take scenic pictures and a great place to relax.



The Sharon Historical Society was founded 32 years ago to promote the research, study, dissemination, publication and recording of the history of the Town of Sharon.

WARD'S
Berry Farm

Natural and aesthetic, Ward's Berry Farm is a place where we can pick seasonal food items and enjoy the natural environment away from the worries of daily life.

Our Home

This year, Sharon, Massachusetts was named the best place to live (America's small towns) by Money Magazine

Sharon, MA
Top 50 rank: 1
Population: 17,944

This New England town is surrounded by a wealth of good jobs in Boston, Providence, and the Route 128 tech corridor. That helped insulate Sharon from the worst of the recession and ignited its rapid recovery.

A half-hour train ride from Boston or Providence, this one-time summer resort has the natural beauty of a more remote place. Forty percent remains open space, and the town jewel, Lake Massapoag, offers a place for residents to swim, picnic, and enjoy concerts on Memorial Beach.

Sharon's schools are a big draw for families. So is its diversity. The town has seven synagogues, nine churches, and one of New England's largest Islamic mosques. Nearly 30% of students in public school are nonwhite, and 18% speak a language other than English at home. --Donna Rosato

Below: Sharon High School is ranked 14th in the state for best public high schools.

Above: Lake Massapoag is a major attraction for families from all over Sharon. It also serves as a great biology resource for schools.

We all know we live in New England, which means we should expect to get a lot of snow in the winter. However, some winters are more snowy than others. This winter was one of those. By February break, we already had 4 snow days. While the seniors are celebrating because they do not have to make the days up, the rest of the us are dreading the last week, when we will be in school late into June.

However, despite the thoughts of a shorter summer, most people can admit there is a little bit of excitement when we hear "school is closed today" and we get to sleep in a little later, relax at home, drink hot chocolate and enjoy the day. Some people even get out and sled, ski, snowboard or build a snowman.

While the snow keeps piling up, and many of us enjoy that part of New England winters, we also often find ourselves daydreaming about flip flops and warm summer days...

Another Snow Day?

Far left: we get so many snow days because driving in the snow can be very hazardous and difficult, even with 4 wheel drive.

Left: Even those people who find snow a nuisance must admit that snow in New England is absolutely beautiful.

Sledding at Petty's Hill

ne of the most fun things to do on a snow day is o get together with your friends and go sledding.

One job that most people dread is shoveling all this snow and finding a place to put it.

Homecoming is a tradition at nearly all High Schools across the country, and Sharon High School is no different. Every year on a beautiful fall morning, when the air is starting to get crisp and the leaves are starting to turn to hues of yellow, red, and orange, Sharon celebrates its homecoming. To do this, we always have a big carnival with music, food, and fun activities run by the many clubs and organizations of Sharon High. Usually this is followed by a football game. That tradition continued this year, and a new one started. This year all fall sports teams had home games, and many, including the football team, rose to victory with support from SHS students showing their EAGLE PRIDE!

China Exchange Program!

Sharon is proud to have an exchange program with the Tang Nan School, X'ian China.The program began in the spring of 2008 when 10 students and two teachers traveled to China on the inaugural journey. In the fall of 2008, five Chinese students and one teacher from the Gaoxin-Tangnan School in Xi'an, China lived with Sharon host families and attended Sharon High School for five months. Since that time, Chinese and American students and educators have been continuing the tradition of traveling and learning in the US and China. We are delighted to be part of this incredible opportunity and to be an active part of the the global community. Each Fall, students from Xi'an spend two months at SHS. Each Spring, 8-10 of our students live with families in Xi'an and attend school with their new Chinese friends. It is a life changing experience for all involved with the program.

All the contestants of the 2013 Mr. SHS male pageant show put forth great effort, however, there could only be one winner! Senior Daylon Williams-Thomas filled the auditorium with laughter as he performed his stand-up comedy act, junior Francois Perera wowed the audience with his break-dancing and yo-yo tricks, and freshman Clint Lee sang a great rendition of Queen's famous song, "Somebody to Love". It was a very tough decision for the judges to determine a winner, as all of the contestants showed off their awesome talents. Overall, the pageant was a fun event for everyone who participated, contestants, escorts, judges and audience members alike!

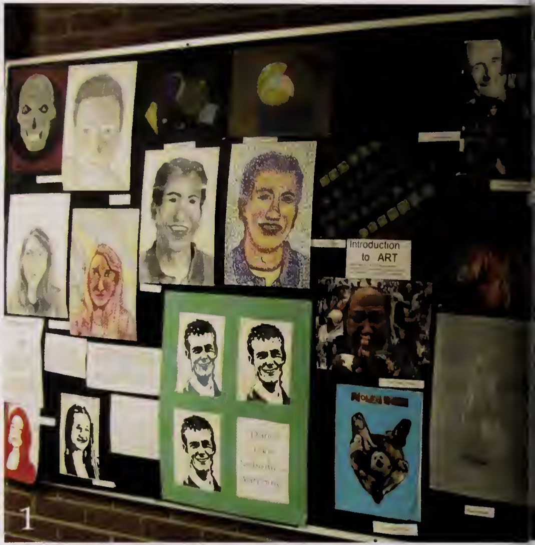
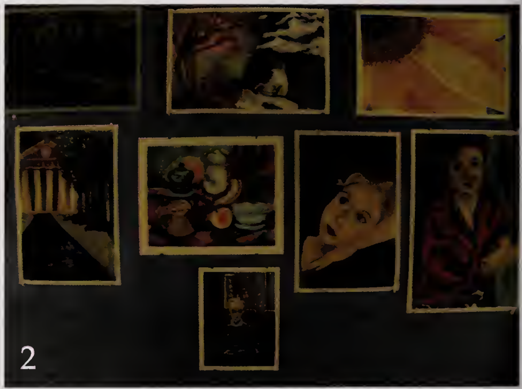
CONNECTING THROUGH ART

UNLEASH YOUR CREATIVITY

What is art? Though there is no exact definition, art exists in many forms, embodied by both 2D and 3D works. Art (the kind that we're talking about) is a uniquely visual form of creative expression that can be interpreted in a multitude of ways. Art can simply be beautiful; it can make a statement; it can tell a story. But, probably most importantly, art is universal - anyone can create art and look upon art with some sort of sentiment or opinion or thought, regardless of what it may be. It provides an outlet for the imagination and allows students to share their ideas and talents with others and each other. Here at Sharon High, students have many opportunities to do so, from the traditional drawing and painting classes to the technology-based digital photography and animation classes. We create art, we admire art that others create, and we subsequently expand our minds - our imagination, our creativity, and even our critical thinking. As mundane as it may seem, art is a powerful force that affects us more prominently than we realize. It is important to stop and appreciate the art around the school - art that makes the atmosphere more lively and relaxed and whose secrets make us ponder outside the classroom.

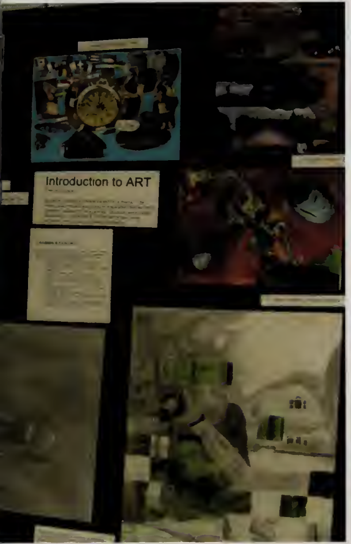


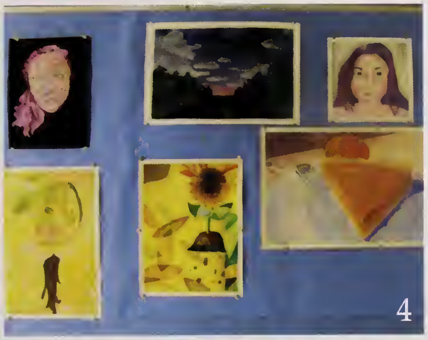


1: Artwork created by students in Intro to Art and Drawing & Painting. Students have made collages, still life drawings, and self-portraits and have experimented with various mediums, including charcoal and printing ink.

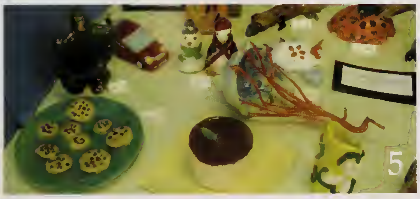
2: Some concentration pieces by AP Studio Art students who come up with a concentration or theme to focus on and explore as part of their portfolio.

3: Khalen Roye meticulously sculpts a house made of clay using different techniques and tools.





4: More artwork by AP Studio Art students. Can you guess which ones go together and what each student's concentration theme is?



5: Clay pieces on display. Students have made many pieces for various projects, including food, mythical creatures, and vases. The creative possibilities are endless!

7: The display case next to the auditorium's entrance is always filled with student-created artwork. It shares and showcases the art students' talents in drawing, painting, sculpting, and much more. It's certainly hard to miss when passing it by, as the display case boasts eye-catching masterpieces in all shapes, sizes, and forms and is updated whenever new projects are completed.

8: Students who sculpt with clay also make cups, bowls, and houses. They pay great attention to detail and choose vibrant colors used to glaze their projects. The amount of effort and careful consideration they put in is evident in the beautiful products on display for others to see and admire.

One of the things that can make High School an enjoyable experience is to join one of the many clubs that are available to students. Whether you join a club to be with other people who share your interests or if you decide to learn about something new, being a part of a club will give you a place to belong and make new friends.

There is no shortage of different interests at SHS. If you want to save animals, you can join PAWS. If you want to save people, check out Amnesty International. You can argue world events on Debate Team and Model UN, or try out your legal skills in Mock Trial. If you are a numbers wiz, then Math Team is for you. If Science is your skill, then join Science Olympiad or Technology Club. Quiz Team or Academic WorldQuest are the places to show your intellect. Join the Friendship Group and spend quality time with some amazing students. Or, if you just need to relax, come on by and play Ping Pong in the foyer or relax by the pond and go fishing with the Fishing Club.

Whatever your desire, you can find a group where you can fit it, have some fun, maybe make a difference, and most definitely make some life-long friends.

YEARBOOK

The yearbook staff work their hardest every year to create a yearbook that reflects the true spirit and energy that the student body brings to SHS. Many aspects of student life are documented including sporting events and achievements, proms and dances, and the large collection of clubs. Also, the yearbook always has a theme which aims to connect students from every grade and share memories that can be looked back upon fondly in the future.

Over a year ago, an exciting program for the summer of 2014 was announced; The World Challenge Program to India. The trip to India lasts twenty three days and includes various days of sight seeing, hiking, and a service project. So far, the students and the teachers who will be leading the trip this coming summer, Dr. Kenner and Ms. Collins, have been doing various activities, many centered around team building and fund raising, in preparation for the life-changing trip they will take this summer.

Who's going on the trip?

Sharon High School bids farewell to two amazing teachers as they retire

Liz Renke

Ms. Renke has been working as an art teacher for over 21 years in Sharon. She started out at East Elementary and then moved to SHS. Before working here, she worked in retail and spent time raising her own children.

When she retires, Ms. Renke looks forward to spending time with her grandchildren, gardening, pursuing art and exercising to her heart's content. She also loves to cook, so she will have the time to try new recipes and take some cooking classes.

She looks forward to her retirement but will miss the people she has come to love here at Sharon High.

We wish her much happiness and relaxation in her retirement.

Hopes to see the USA and visit Italy and France for Starters

Jacqueline Torbin

Mademoiselle Torbin has been a teacher in Sharon for 14 years. She started out in the middle school for 6 years and spent the last 8 at the High School. Before that she was a French teacher at Regis College.

She is not quite sure what she wants to do when she retires, but she hopes to keep working part time. She will miss the friendships she has made at Sharon High and feels like this has become her second family. She is a bit concerned about leaving this place, but knows it is the right thing to do.

The entire Sharon community is going to miss her as well.

Plans on traveling to see family in France and California, her daughter and granddaughter in Israel and her sons in New York.

1.) Members of the Sharon High Gold Team enjoying their time on the gold course on this beautiful fall day.

2.) Senior Max Bauman smiles after he gets the kind roll of the golf ball towards the hole.

3.) Seniors Max Bauman and Sam Waugh celebrate their outstanding shots with a knuckle-touch as they proceed to the fifth hole.

3.) Senior Sam Waugh strikes through the golf ball and sends it flying towards the flag .

4.) Sophomore Ryan Crooks sends the golf ball down the green as he contributes to the Eagles' successful score for the day.

The 2013 Golf Team Thrived at Hocks and States lead by captain Max Crooks and a lineup of very talented golfers. After a 7-4 record for the season, the Eagles took home a championship.

It was close but in the end, it was the Eagles who walked away with the hardware at the Hockomock Golf Championship in October. Beating Canton by two strokes, the Sharon Eagles were crowned the best golf team in the league, taking first place with a score of 243 at the tournament held at the Granite Links Golf Club in Quincy. Colton Bader led the team, scoring an 80 and finishing in a three-way tie for second place. Angela Zhang was not far behind in fifth place with an 81. Max Crooks placed eight, shooting an 82. Earlier in the year, Zhang competed at the girls' individual golf state championship tournament where she took third third place with a score of 80.

The team came in 7th out of 25 teams at the state class meet, with two runners, Adam Selsman and Paul Fleming, qualifying to race in the All-State meet in Gardner Massachusetts. Adam Selsman reflects, "We proved to be a really dominant force in the league this year with nearly perfect wins in each dual meet and some of our strongest showings in years at the Hock Championship and Class meet."

The girls finished with a strong season. For the first time in many years, the team reached 20 members, a sure sign of a stellar season. There were outstanding performances by newcomers Ellen Sears (Junior) and Erica Laidler (Freshman). Along with Junior Lily Fawcett, the three formed a power trio, consistently placing at the top on the Sharon squad. The three captains, Seniors Cecily Chase, Elise Commons and Julia Cox are extremely proud of the effort the entire team put forth and believes they are in an awesome position for the next season.

The varsity team finished off their season with a record of 8-15. Despite not having a winning record, the team did have a memorable season that none of the girls will forget. "Although we didn't get as far as we expected, it was a great year for developing strong friendships," said senior captain, Gabrielle Grigonis. Senior Brittney High recalls, "Those girls helped me become the volleyball player that I am today."

" Lets Ride This Year"

With a record of 13-7, the varsity team was able to clinch the Davenport League Title and advance to the MIAA South Sectional Finals. It was a crazy year for the Eagles, who had two 1,000 point scorers, Senior Captains, James Fritzson and Brian Mukasa. "It has been a privilege playing alongside two 1,000 point scorers and many of the guys I've been playing basketball with for a long time" says sophomore Matt Lowerre. Captain Erik Kushner says, "Our motto was lets ride this year because we just tried to take things one day at a time and constantly get better." One of the differences this season as opposed to the last is the mentality of everyone on the team. Their goal is to win and to have nothing stop them. "From day one we had a championship mentality. One of our goals was to win the Davenport, which we were able to do," says Lowerre. Kushner sums up his four years in the Sharon High School basketball program in six words: "All four years have been unreal"

Senior Ade Bright goes for the hoop with this amazing play.

1000 POINTS

This year the Sharon Girls Varsity Basketball team saw a streak of success as they held a winning record and became the Hockomock League Champions in girls basketball and made it to the MIAA South Sectional Finals. For a team of such strength, agility, determination, and passion, it is clear that the title they earned suits them well.

Even though there may have been obstacles throughout its journey, the team definitely rose to challenge and played each game with their heart. The enthusiasm the players displayed was contagious. Win or loss, this team of girls along with their supportive coach continued to strive for success, never backing down and always standing ready to play the game that they love.

The key to success is the ability to form a well-bonded team, which this team has as pictured to the left.

In the picture to the left, the team gathers in a circle to cheer each other on and get mentally prepared for the game that's ahead of them.

Our "180 days

Rebecca J.

Although I am excited to see what the future has in store for me and couldn't be happier to be attending Franklin and Marshall College in the fall, there are many things I am going to miss. I'm going to miss all of my amazing friends, some of which I've been going to school with since I was four. It's just going to be so weird to not see familiar faces the first day of classes or eat lunch with my lifelong friends.

Rebecca G.

My time at Sharon High has taught me a lot about myself, but I'm excited to learn more in college!

Hannah

Being new freshman year, I didn't know what to expect at Sharon High, but it's safe to say that I am so happy to have spent these past four years here. The memories and bonds I have made with my amazing friends and teachers will always be with me. Thank you to Sharon High School for being such a warm and welcoming environment.

"I'm looking forward to having a new experience outside of Sharon in college, but I will definitely miss seeing my friends everyday."

Jordan

Eryn

Although I won't be going far from Sharon, I'm going to miss all of the people I've met. I'll never forget everything I've learned and all the memories I've made. Wherever I head in the future, the safety and comfort of nature will always lead me back to Sharon, where the air is fresh and clean and pure as water.

Ravali

After spending twelve years in Sharon, I have realized that what I will miss most is the great community! I am thrilled to explore new experiences, yet I know that a sense of relief will always overcome me when I return to my home in Sharon, the home of my friends, family, and community.

Rebecca, Rebecca, Eryn, Ravali, Elise, Hannah and Jordan:

It has been my pleasure to work with all of you and really get to know you these last few years. I have watched you all grow into beautiful, talented and unique young women ready to take on the world. Before you leave, and head out to pursue your dreams, I would like to give you some advice that I have found to be helpful in my life.

First, follow your own dreams for yourself, no one else's. Second, accept the fact that along the way you are going to make mistakes. Just realize that we always make the best decision we can at the time. Do not dwell on the past, just learn from it and move on. Finally, always believe in yourself. If you don't, then others won't either. And remember, wherever you go, there are so many people back here in Sharon who will be here for you always.

Love,
Mrs. Fox
